confession. Men from Illinois and other States who come to Nebraska and examine for themselves, go away convinced of the fact, that the Grasshopper is by no means as destructive as the Chinch Bug, they see that the stories they have heard are either wholly false or greatly exaggerated, and they realize that in the young State of Nebraska men can raise bigger crops, and make more money than they can further east, notwithstanding that we do have an occasional Grass hopper to worry us.

The Grasshopper troubles of the past two years have done us no damage of any consequence, and everything goes to prove the truth of what Professor Riley says, which is, that Grasshoppers will only trouble Nebraska once or twice in a long series of years, and that year by year the chances of our being troubled will grow less .-Nebraska Exchange

GOOD HABITS have somewhat to do with purity of character, not to mention elevation of thought The opinion now obtains largely among people of practical good sense that the public teachers of learning and morals ought themselves to set good examples. If such persons are slaves to foolish or bad habits, they are not such models of propriety and virtue as teachers ought to be: for, example ought to go with precept, and precept ought to be strengthened and sustained by good example. Bad habits have a degrading tendency upon the individual and hence a lowering influence upor the society in which he moves. No Board of Edneation for instance would, knowingly, employ a man for teacher who was in the habit of getting intoxicated, and no religious body would care to ecure as pastor a man similarly addicted. Since public attention has been called to the proper consideration of this subject, some raise the question whether the use of tobacco in a teacher or a preseher is not a serious objection. It is claimed that the practice is apt to run to excess and and thus tends to vitlate the system, to destroy the natural and create artificial appetites and to induce to evil inculgences.

What force there is in all this we shall not undertake to discuss; but, assuredly, correct habits and ways are necessary to keep the body healthful and pure, all which have much to do with the proper and vigorous action of the mind. Healthful conditions are also important to the proper development of body and mind in the young, and hence the care that should be taken in selecting those calculated to exert an influence upon them. Let these be selected who will strengthen correct precept by good example. The fact is,
"Prudent, cautious, self-control,

Is wisdom's root."

THE AULTMAN Shop .- Work was commenced in the Aultman establishment on Monday of this week in earnest after a rest of near three months. The various departments are not yet in full blast we learn, but it is hoped soon will be. The painters may have to wait some weeks yet. The uncertainty and irregularity of labor now-a-days is a serious drawback to the mechanics and laboring men who work in the shops, especially to those who have families. The lowering of wages too is becoming serious, for we learn there was a "cut" of ten per cent. on wages and an hour and three quarters in time, making the day's work but eight and one-fourth hours. We are glad to chronic this resumption of work and hope soon to announce the same for the C. Russall & Co. establishment, It is a matter of regret that the proprietors feel compelled to cut down the wages of their workmen, and it all goes to show the pressure of the "hard times," and as yet there is no improvement as we were told prior to the election. Laboring people, too, realize that the price of provisions keeps up remarkably for those out of work, or who work at reduced wages. Farmers should be on their guard. A new dodge of swindling has been put in operation. Several strange men drive through an agricultural district, stop at all the farm houses and make a contract to take all the butter the farmer can furnish at fitty cents per pound. Further, it will be gathered up by last special teams and the cash paid for it at the door. The pretense is that during the fall and winter, the large cities will be overcrowded and that butter will be scarce. In this way all the farmers in a district are contracted with and arrangements are made to come for the butter on certain days and at certain points, 20th of December. The treasurer's books are now opened for the convenience of those who wish to of cows come along. They are fine milch cows. The farmers having a good thing in view think they might use a few more cows. They try to buy them and the drover doesn't seem anxious to sell. Finally, however, he is induced to sell two or three to each farmer, at prices considerably higher than the real market value. He then departs meets his partner, who put up the butter job, and they divide their profits. That is the last the farmer hears of it.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 16.—The jury in the case of the State of Obio vs. Charles M Sterling, the murderer of Lizzle Grombacher, which has been on trial since October 31, this evening returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The reader will remember the account, as pub-lished at the time, of the murder and ravishment of Lizzie Grombacher, a few miles south of this city, on the 21st of June last. The people have been excited about the murder ever since, and very large crowds have attended the trial. When the jury gave in the verdict the prisoner arose and said he was just as innocent as they were, and said that he would not go back to jail a single inch. He was handcuffed, however, and taken back without trouble.

ALLIANCE.—Last Thursday morning it was discovered that both the P. Ft. W. & C. and C. & P. freight houses in this city had been broken into and robbed. Joshua Barnaby, assistant ticket agent in the P. Ft. W. & C. office, repaired to the station to meet No. 1. passenger train, which reaches this station about five o'clock. He concluded to visit the freight office and start the fire before the coming of the train. While thus angaged he discovered that the shutter had bee pried off, the window sash broken in, and the noney drawer rifled. A glance at the safe showed a small piece of paper sticking in the keyhole, but otherwise, it had not been disturbed. Just then the whistle of the train called him to the ticket office, and supposing the thieves had long since gone, he locked the door and went to the passenger depot to attend his duties. As soon as the train left, he, in company with Mr. Crankshaw, the night watchman, returned to the freight office to learn the extent of the robbery. On opening the door, they were surprised to find the room full of smoke and burnt powder, and at a glance discovered that during his absence the thieves had returned and fixed the fuse with the ention of blowing up the safe. The attempt was a fall ire, and the approach of daylight and return of Mr Barnaby no doubt saved the com-pany from suffering a heavy robbery. The only loss as yet discovered, consists of the nickles and change in the money drawer, amounting probably to about ten dollars. A short time after the discovery of the robbery. Billy Joseph, employed at the C. & P. freight house, arrived, and after no ting the condition of things at the Pittsburgh of fice, thought be had better see if the C. & P. house was all right. He tried his k y in the door, but found it wouldn't open. He finally effected an entrance and found the safe blowed open, the pieces scattered over the room and the contents carried away. Owing to the care of Mr. Cleland, the agent, the safe contained but a small amount of money, and the booty which the thieves carried away will probably not exceed thirty dollars. As yet no trace has been found of the thieves.

On Thursday evening De Forest Fluke, a lad of ourteen or fifteen years of age, Jumped on the aboose o. a freight train, with the intention of riding beyond the Mt. Union street bridge and then jump off. The night was quite dark, and when he reached the supposed point, he leaped from the car, which chansed to be directly on the bridge. The boy fell through the tressel work to the street below, a distance of from fifteen to wenty feet, outting his lip and face in a terrible manner, and breaking his leg above the knee, He was found there shortly after the accident and carried home. The patient, at this writing lough suffering much, is doing as well as could be expected.-Alliance Review, WOOSTER, O., Nov. 17 .- George Hawkins, the dest resident of this city, died yesterday, aged ninety-five.

The dwelling of Mr. Swartz, in the southern part of this city, was burned early this morning. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as the family have been absent a week. Loss, $500; sured in the Knox Mutual Insurance Company.

Judge W. K. Hastings, a former citizen of Columbiana county, committed suicide at Philadel-phia a few days ago. He has suffered a derange ment of mind, more or less, for several years. He shot himself at the Navy yard, to which place he had wandered from his hotel. His daughter Emma was with him in the city, and when he left the room he said to her, she would never see him again - Salem Republican.

LOBAIN COUNTY -The Elyria Democrat says last Friday, Nov. 10, the citizens of LaGrange had a grand rat hunt. In pursuance of a previous arrangement, fifty-four persons—twenty-seven on each side—turned out in pursuit of the pests, and when the shades of evening prevented further search, the parties came together and counted up the game. It was found that twelve thousand and ninety-seven rats and mice had been slain All hands then partook of an ovster supper at the expense of the vanquished party.

WELLSVILLE.—The people were considerably excited last Thursday, by a rumor that a you man had dangerously injured his sister and then killed himself. It appears that John Barr, the young man in question, had a dispute with his sister and struck her a blow with a cup, and sup posing he had dangerously wounded her, in rerse for the act, he drew his revolver and shot himself in the head. After he had falten to the floor, he fired two more shots, one of which took effect in the head just below the right car. Surgical aid proved unavailing and he died the same evening. His sister's injuries were not of a serious character.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

A CARD FROM MR. SAUVAGEOT.

A being reported that I advised and gave ter follars towards having arrested and prosecuted the Black boys and others before the late election, I take this opportunity to say that I counseled otherwise, preferring to let the matter go so far as I was concerned, and I gave not one cent to fur ther or encourage the prosecution, and defy any one to show to the contrary, COOKING FOOD FOR LIVE STOCK.

We call attention to the advertisement of Alon zo Holl, agent for Dalley's Stock Food Steamer and Evaporator. Cooking the food of live stock is no new experiment. It has been practiced by the best farmers in all countries for years, and the universal testimony is that it pays. It is estimated by all the best stock men of this country, after years of experience and careful observation, that at least one-third of the feed is saved by steaming. Here is what Mr. Geo. A. Moore, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I experimented with sixty-four cows." giving the Democratic State ticket 903
Steamed a quantity of musty hay. They would majority. Tilden gets over 700 majority allowing all the fraudulent figures claimfood does not constipate the animal-the hair looks it is the intention of the Republicans to better. Steamed food increased the milk one stave off the count untill the 6th proximo third, and the cows do better. I think cutting and steaming insure a gain to the feeder of at least thirty-three per cent.

Any of our friends desiring this Steamer, should apply to Alonzo Holl, New Berlin, Stark county,

O. F. CLOUSER'S, Cassilly's block, east side Public Square, is the place to get your Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, &c., at "hard times" prices. IMMENSE WASTE.

There has been lots of money wasted by inex perienced buyers, who have bought inferior cloth ing at fancy prices. Let it be understood, that in no part of our establishment do fancy prices prevail Fach article is marked in plain figures. We have but one price and a low price, from which there will be no deviation. We manufacture all our own clothing thereby saving the buyer 40 pe cent. Let it be remembered that we sell no goods below cost, but will guarantee to sell goods from 25 to 50 per cent cheaper than any other house in this city. If you don't believe it call at Sam. Gunsberg's One Price Clothing Store and see for yourself.

A CASE IN COURT.-A case of some interest bas accidents and injuries arising from machinery, defective or otherwise. This case is brought by a young man named Stutz against Diebold, Norris & Co., damages laid at ten thousand dollars. It seems while the Safe company were building the monster California safe they used a movable elevated derrick and the railing giving way some-how, while Stutz was at work underneath, the young man received very severe injuries on the head, of such a character as probably to ruin him or life. The case was warmly contested, S. Meyer a Son for pittl and W. A. Lynch and L. Schæfer or defendants. The case was given to the jary o-day, but their verdict is not yet rendered. The civil docket is being rapidly drawn to a lose and the criminal cases will be taken up next. Week, the case of the State against Mrs. Richardon being set for Monday. "SEDITION IN STARK COUNTY."-"An incipient rebellion in the city of Canton," &c., &c., were the horrible head lines to a long article in last week's R-posttory. It indicated that somebody was skeer't" over the election of Tilden and at the earnest shouts over the same. We learn "ye" ocal of the Repository is more calm since he got t into his mind that troops had arrived at Wash ington, and the Brooklyn Navy yard was rapidly being put in shape, and also that troops would be located in Toledo and other convenient points But we advise: Don't get the fidgets; If you've got your place, Just do your best and throw the words apace,

Do not get rabid when you would alarm, Or wildly feverish when you others charm. Think of the patriarchs; then compare as men Those wild eyed maniac moust its of the pen ! Run if you like, but try to keep your breath; strive like a man, but don't be scared to death Four years of Tilden's genial, honest rule, Will prove to such, a salutary school.

Mrs. S. snores in her sleep. If she happens to get to sleep first, then good bye to any sleep for Mr. S. The other might both were waked up at the same time by a noise in the cellar. Mrs. S. was terribly frightened, believing that burglars vere atter pling to gain admission into the house Mr. S. satisfied himself that the noise was made by rats and soon fell to sleep again, Mrs. S. was in such trepidation of mind, that sleep with her was out of the question. Mr. S. caught au idea. Since then be is unable to sleep by reason of his wife snoring, he gently wakes her up and whispers in her ear, that he believes there are burglars in the house. It works like a charm. She scarcely breathes, and Mr. S. is soon unconscious.

"Egypt and the Holy Land" wast the subject of very interesting lecture by Reverend Doctor be Hass, American counsel at Jerusalem last eveaing in the lecture room of the First M. E. church of Canton. We have heard several lectures on bese subjects, but never in the same time of two ours did we hear so much told and so tersely, netsely and attractively told. The reverend gentleman had an appreciative audience and air as to numbers, but his off-hand lecture was vorthy of a much larger attendance.

Massillon.-The other day a young man from reenville was looking at jewelty in Jos. Coleman's, when Mr. C. observed the sweet youth slip a ring into his pocket. After a while Mr. Coleman told the chap to shell out, and a police offieer took him in charge. Two other rings were ound on him, having been stolen the week before at John Coleman's. After a hearing be-fore Mayor Frantz, he was sent to Canton jail in letault of two hundred dollars' bail. The young man's mother and relatives induced Mr. Coleman to relent and consent to his release on paying all costs.

TIME TABLE.

GOING WEST Respectfully,

GEO. McGUIRE, Agent. ANOTHER KINK

The Cleveland Leader Alarmed, The following from the Cleveland Lader of Wednesday gives evidence of "The Democrats have stirred up another mare's nest in which they hope to find a victory for Mr. Tilden. It is said that the Constitution of Colorada has not yet been approved by Congress, and that she is not, therefore, a State entitled to a place in the Electoral College. The House will refuse to approve the Colorado Constitution, and thus endeaver to exclude the votes of that State,-This will be great business. Mr. Tilden would be a brave President, elected by such a trick as that. Colorado was formally admitted into the Union as a State.

She cannot be disfranchised.' Sam Patch said, "some things can be fone as well as others." and the Leader s becoming alarmed. It fears that the defrauding on their part may not succeed after all-and it will not.

FLORIDA.

All the Counties In-The Democratic Majority 903.

Columbus, O., Nov. 20 .- The following dispatch was just received at the Democratic Head quarters.

"Lake City, Florida, November 20th, 4 p. m.—Brevard County, 68 Democratic majority. All the counties are in, giving the Democratic State ticket 903 t than with the sweetest unsteamed hay. Steamed | ed by the Republicans. From advices, when Governor Stearns will issue certificates to the Hayes Electors. On Saturday Stearns announced that he should canvass the Electoral vote himself. The Democrats entered a protest. The Republicans are determined to count out ooth Tilden and Drew. [Signed.] Lake City Reporter."

> ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.—The Illinois Legislature will stand politically as follows: Senate—Democrats 24, Republicans 25, Independents 5. House— Democrats and Independents 77, Republicans 76. This gives an opposition on joint ballot of seven, which secures the election of a United States Senator over John A. Logan. - Proria Democrat.

> THE Cincinnati Commercial is straining itself for Hayes. That mountain of 300-000 of a majority of the people for Tilden is a fearful obstacle for the saints. It is worse than the valley of disappointment.

> Can it be that Rutherford B. Hayes wishes to usurp the office of President of the United States? It must take cheek when we reflect that Tilden beats him by 300,000 or more of a majority.

> THE Republican who invented the patent counting process," forgot the Democratic House of Representatives has revisionary power. Better give us an honest count.

> CARROLL county voted for President-Tilden 1 554, Hayes 2,060, Hayes's majority 506. Two votes were cast for Cooper and four for Prohibition. The total vote was 3,629.

NINT out of the original thirteen States voted for Samuel J. Tilden.
